Harold Schaefer—Principal

The back-bone and ruling body of the Hughesville High School, the School Board has supervised and approved all activities of the students and the faculty, molding them all into an efficient and well running organization.

It is to these conscientious citizens, who devote much time and knowledge to school conditions that the graduating classes of the Hughesville High School have forever felt indebted.

Faculty

A well-organized and active group, the faculty of the Hughesville School District has conscientiously worked for the betterment of school conditions and raising of the scholastic rating of the students themselves.

Fifty years ago, the faculty consisted of two teachers who taught a straight academic course, composed of Latin, English, History and Algebra, to the Juniors and Seniors. (As the only two classes were called).

Today, these twenty-five builders lay brick after brick upon the wall of knowledge that surrounds the lives of every H. H. S. student. Vocational, Academic, Commercial and General courses include four types of mathematics, social studies, natural and social sciences, English and literature, music and art, home economics, agriculture, and manual training, typing, shorthand and bookkeeping, Latin and Spanish and physical education. Working side by side with the students they mold character, encourage ambition, and teach the fundamentals of democracy.

We thank each and every one of them who guided us along the way as the class of 1943.

HELEN BOGART confesses she spends at least one hour each morning combing her hair for the H. H. S. boys.

RUTH HARRIMAN confesses her knowledge comes by mail order. It costs her only two box tops and $.10 to cover handling charges.

ANITA HERR confesses that she faithfully practises her dance steps in front of the mirror at least one hour every day.

JUNE SMITH confesses that she has known about Dick's admiration for Thelma for quite some time but adds that a triangle only helps to make things more interesting.

BOB CAMPBELL confesses he finally got tired of so much variety and decided to concentrate on one special Joyce—that is, for a while anyway.

CLIFFORD MORGAN confesses that he isn't discouraged when the first girl refuses a date with him, but when it comes to five refusals in one night—that isn't good!

JOHN ODELL confesses it took three months of his senior year to get enough courage to approach Gladys for a date.

WARREN WHIPPLE confesses that he spends at least forty-four minutes out of each period writing to Mary Margaret and the rest of the period he devotes entirely to his studies.

MABEL MILLER confesses that color rationing wouldn't effect her with that torrid shade of blushing red.

DICK FOUGHT confesses that his over developed muscles are a result of strenuous arm exercise. AHM!

HARRY KELLER confesses that he once giggled out loud in the library. My, my, Harry!

PEARL RITTER confesses that although Luke is her one and only, she can't resist the charm of the Senior boys.

★ ★ ★ Confessions! ★ ★ ★

LEROY PETERS confesses that he finally discovered winking requires too much work and has given it up for less energetic exercises.

WILLARD MYERS confesses that silence is golden and he is still on the gold standard even if the government isn't.

PAUL McCARTY confesses that he has taken Lucky Teter's place and is now giving close competition to Jimmy Lynch.

★ ★ ★ Class Prophecy ★ ★ ★

LOUISE ANDREWS—we find Louise visiting Feese Loosejoints calisthenics class trying to get rid of that excess fat.

HELEN BOGART—after all these years Helen finally finds she has no chance with McCarty, so she is now writing the Lonely Heart's Column for the Hughesville Mail.

JUNE SMITH—June has just finished her tenth novel—all best sellers. Her last was entitled "Journalism in the Grocery Store."

GLADYS SONES—we find she has continued her art career and is now drawing cartoons to entertain the little Odells.

MARY FOX—we find Mary spending a lot of her time reading her love letters from Servicemen that she received back in 1943.

JOHN ODELL—Johnny is now running his own record shop. We hear him still talking about the good old days when Harry James was No. 1 dance band.

CARL VAN HORN—he has just applied for the job of floorwalker at a local store. He feels that being the father of triplets qualifies him for the job.

ANITA HERR—Anita's dramatic ability has finally led her to Hollywood. Her latest picture is "Local Girl Makes Good."

HARRY KELLER—Harry is now in partnership with Einstein and at present is concentrating on a new formula for Pepsi-cola.

LUCILLE BIGGER—shortly after graduation, Lucille joined the WAAC. Now she cherishes the fact that she was one of the four members of her family in the service.

REGINA STUGARD—Since Regina's husband cuts himself quite frequently while shaving, her career as a nurse certainly is worth while.

PEARL RITTER—Pearl has made quite a success of her work as a beautician. Recently she has gone in for styling baby's hair for family use.

DICK FOUGHT—Dick sees to be taking over where Charles Atlas left off. He is handing out first hand information to under developed high school boys.

BOB CAMPBELL—Bob has changed his profession and is now Dr. Hoch's right-hand man.

JOE EICHENLAUB—after finally persuading the little lady in Montgomery to marry him, we find Joe happily settled on a farm raising chickens.

RUTH HARRIMAN—recently accepted the job of Secretary to the Secretary to the Secretary of State. She's a Democrat.

PAUL McCARTY—since Paul didn't know whether to follow in his father's footsteps as a barber or follow in his brother's and be an undertaker, he has compromised and is now cutting hair—strictly for the dead, of course.

LOUELLA POUST—has taken complete charge of Trout Ponds but has changed the name to "Sucker's Ranch."

KATHRYN POUST—has just signed a contract to sing with the Hit Parade. Her sponsor is Chirpy Bird Seed.

KATHRYN SMITH—Sis finally has settled down and is doing fine in the tailoring business designing women's slacks.

★ ★ ★ Class Prophecy ★ ★ ★

LOIS GRAY—the commercial education that Lois received in High School certainly helped her find a grand position. We see her now taking dictation on her bosses' knee.

CLIFFORD MORGAN—we find Clifford demonstrating manure spreaders among our local hillsides.

LARUE NEUFER—remembering the trouble he had getting elastic suspenders during the rubber shortage of World War II in '43, has bought up all the branches of the "Catchum Before They Stretchum" National Company of Incorporated Rubber Pants—the kind that stay up by themselves.

WARREN WHIPPLE—Whipple has been studying the "Life of Brigham Young" for ten years and has decided that that, along with experience, has taught him that pioneers have a hard life.

LEAH CONFER—Leah's "laughing records", which demonstrate different types of giggles and their effect, have lost their popularity since the commercializing of "laughing gas" by the government.

MABEL MILLER—Mabel has been teaching Agriculture to the Penn Township boys. It seems they planted "Navy" beans and the Army suspects them of sabotage.

HAROLD GREEN—after all these years, Harold's doctor discovered he's color blind. That accounts for those shirts that used to brighten up the H. H. S. halls.

MARY HESS—the little Ford Mary drove back in '43 has been purchased by the Smithsonian Institute for use in their 19th Century exhibit. A wax dummy of Mary, complete with smile, glasses, and chewing gum, adorns the running board.

THELMA LUNGER—employed in a dentist's office, Thelma has one of the oddest jobs in the country. When the dentist finishes a patient, Thelma sings "Mother McCrea" to counter-effect the "laughing gas."

MAX TEMPLE—we find Max still serving sentence in the guardhouse where he landed during World War II. It seems Max refused to let his curly locks be shorn to a "G. I." haircut.

HAROLD BARTO—we find Harold in Africa, where he journeyed ten years ago to look up the source of "That Old Black Magic." Incidentally, he also has made a fortune selling Gene Krupa's records to the tribes there. The price is two goo-goo drops (a by-product of the dum-dum tree).

LOIS POUST—Lois always wanted to be a saleswoman, so when she was offered a job selling water wings to trans-oceanic travelers, she took it.

LEROY PETERS—after searching over the country for Leroy, we are unable to trace him. Reports say he was last seen winking at a girl near an open manhole.

WILLARD MYERS—Willard is a pearl diver in the South Seas. He still hasn't caught the "Pearl" of his eye. His battlecry is "Luke! Luke! You've got the wrong Pearl!"

MYRON SMITH—Myron Smith, despite rumors, is still driving his pick-up truck for the purposes of picking up the pick-ups that most pick-ups pick up.

ESTHER GREEN—Remembering the days of color rationing, Esther has changed her name, as well as her hair, to Blonde.

Freshmen History

SEPT. 1939

Our first glimpse into a new world! We entered Hughesville High School as timid Freshmen. Accustomed to small classes we were surprised, and pleased to find we had 65 members. Much too large for a single group, we were divided into two sections. Officers were elected as follows: 9A President, Warren Whipple; Vice President, Harry Keller; Secretary, Carl Van Horn; Treasurer, Dorothy Winkleblech. 9B President, Clifford Morgan; Vice President, Gladys Sones; Secretary, Louise Andrews; Treasurer, Harold Green.

Not to be outdone by the upper-classmen, we sprinted ahead, through a year filled with many activities and social highlights.

A food sale and several penny suppers were held. We became crack salesmen in trying to sell "the last bottle of vanilla."

The various holidays gave us excuses for parties. Will we ever forget the Hallowe'en or Christmas party?

A picnic at Rolling Green was the "Grand Finale" of our Freshmen year.

Sophomore History

SEPT. 1940

One more step up the ladder we came, fifty in number. We could look down upon the Freshmen with scorn. We were Sophomores.

Familiar with the lay of the land, we held our class election. Those chosen were, President, Warren Whipple; Vice President, Harry Keller; Secretary, Carl Van Horn; Treasurer, Gladys Sones.

Not even the rain could dampen our spirits, although it rained the night we held a weiner roast at the Lower Island.

We disregarded the mud and puddles and made it an evening to long remember.

In late November a new idea of entertainment was presented to the "Sophs" in the form of a scavenger hunt.

When lessons became rather tiresome, someone always suggested a party. Needless to say many parties were held that year.

Remembering our picnic of the last year, we decided to make history repeat itself, and our slogan became "On to Rolling Green!"

Junior History

SEPT. 1941

As Juniors, we returned to school with forty-nine members. Now upper classmen, we regarded the "Sophs" as silly children and the "Freshies" as the greenest of the green. The organization of our class soon took place with the following results: Warren Whipple, President; Carl Van Horn, Vice President; Paul McCarty, Secretary; Gladys Sones, Treasurer.

Almost immediately we plunged into class activities; the selection of class rings, and pins, the production of our junior play "Mama's Baby Boy." We displayed our dramatic, technical, and business ability in the effort.

During the year we held a penny supper and had several parties. The close of the year found us picnicking at Rolling Green, the most popular amusement park for miles around.

Senior History

SEPT. 1942

Four short years our class has lived—one of the finest classes that ever entered old Hughesville High, namely the class of '43. Every day of those most precious years has been crowded with events. The members of this class have achieved the fame and honors that were bound to come to them and the memories of our high school days will linger in the hearts of each and every one.

We were the envy of the underclassmen, the pride of the school when at last came our Senior year with all its dignity, importance and feeling of superiority. With this year came the thoughts and preparations for graduation—the selection of the motto, the class flower, song and poem, the class colors, the oratorical contest, the class play "Bringin' Home The Bacon" and the numerous parties that made up our social life.

Five of our boys joined the Navy. They are Charles Shaner, Robert Odell, Eugene Houseknecht, Philip Parker and Alvin Henderson.

Jolly

Juniors

The fifty-two members of the Junior class are rightfully called jolly for they're always ready for a good time or argument. In the production of their class play, "Tomboy", they showed their unlimited ability.

Class rings were ordered and the class was happy on the day of delivery.

Even under the present conditions they carried through a prom which we will all remember as the birthday party for the fiftieth graduating class of Hughesville High School.

Officers were selected as follows: President, Aldine Sheets; Vice President, Jeanne Odell; Secretary, Charlotte Krause; Treasurer, Raymond Minnier.

Class advisers are Miss Reece and Mrs. Smith.

Gay Young Sophomores

When the class of '45 assembled as sophomores their ranks had thinned to forty-five members. Full of pep and anxious to show their superiority over freshmen they plunged into school activities. The class organization chose the following officers: President, Charles Waters, Vice President, Mary M. McClintock; Secretary, Esta Frantz; and Treasurer, Ruth Gray. They were supervised by Mrs. Guinter and Mr. Kelsey. Urged and aided by capable class mothers, they participated in a number of social affairs.

Our Coach . . .

Who works with our boys teaching them good sportsmanship and fair play and helping their development into clean, strong, American manhood. Good luck, to you, Coach, and may all your victories be big ones.

Here are the number of points that our boys piled up during the season of basketball and their place in the West Branch League.

Bubb	5 place	132 points
Armstrong	13 place	101 points
Van Horn	17 place	92 points
Fought	19 place	71 points
Haynes	30 place	27 points
Whipple	16 place	16 points

Always in there spurring our team to victory are the enthusiastic students of the H. H. S. This year their rousing cheers were led by Senior Cheerleaders, Kathryn Poust and June Smith; Raymond Minnier, Jeanne Odell and Ruth Myers, Juniors.

"Shammy" and "Hugh", mascot "pandas", furnished variety.

"JAYVEES AND SQUAD"

Handicapped by the gasoline situation, the "Jayvees" played few games this year. However, whenever the varsity galloped far enough ahead of our opponents, Coach Lunger gave the squad a chance to show its stuff.

The unheralded workers of the squad, this year's managers were Corson Smith and Charles Waters. Their "behind the scenes" work was a vital part of that unseen something that goes into a basketball season.

The Voice Of The Pupils

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS

President	Kathryn Poust
Vice President	Donald Bubb
Secretary	Carl Van Horn
Treasurer	Ruth Myers

Through the Student Council, the student body voices its opinion of how the model high school should be run. It is this organization that promotes teamwork between the faculty and students, and serves the community through their efforts.

The outstanding project of the Council this year was its "Jeep" drive, in which they led the student body in purchasing three "Jeeps" for the armed forces.

Scribblers

Combining the work of three departments, the Commercial, under Mrs. Smith; the English, under Mrs. Waters and the Art under Mrs. Fetter, the students who composed this years staff have more than doubled the size of the "Monarch" and worked diligently to better school conditions. They have made the students' pleas their policy and deserve credit for their efforts and labor.

Vocal Vision

Consisting of five boys and forty-one girls under the direction of Mrs. Reiley; the mixed chorus group has perfected a number of songs, both patriotic and comic.

The music department may well be proud of this growing organization that has advanced and improved with leaps and bounds.

Music Makers

Somewhat smaller than it has ever been, but not lacking in talent, is the orchestra that serves the students regularly in assembly.

Though the Seniors forget much of their life in the high school, they will always remember the orchestra playing "Pomp and Circumstance" and "Danny Boy."

Girl Scouts

The Girl Scouts of Hughesville have expanded into three troops of Intermediate Scouts and one troop of "Brownies", bringing the total of about seventy girls engaged in the scouting program.

Troop No. 12, the oldest troop, is under the direction of Miss Bernice Herr and Mrs. LaRue Smith.

Troop No. 21 is under the supervision of Mrs. Glenn Lunger and Miss Doris Hess and Troop No. 42, is led by Miss Jean Diggan, and the "Brownies" have as their leader, Miss Marian Houseknecht.

Boy Scouts

Organized by Mr. Creveling into one strong group, Troop No. 26 of the Boy Scouts of America have worked faithfully to assist the war effort.

The boys have gathered scrap, tin, and paper, enrolled in life-saving and first-aid courses, served as air-raid messengers, airplane spotters and fulfilled any duties assigned to them by borough officials. Their bond and stamp purchases complete this record of which any organization should be proud.

A. A. A.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION OFFICERS

President	Carl Van Horn
Vice President	Donald Bubb
Secretary	Joyce Myers
Treasurer	Kathryn Poust

Financing all sports in the high school, the Athletic Association successfully supported the basketball squads both girls and boys, elected the cheerleaders and served the students faithfully all during the season.

Now that the end of the year is here, the A. A. A. will be busy presenting the athletic awards made possible by the enthusiastic support and financial help of the basketball rooters.

Related Art Class

Expressing original ideas the student artists completed many interesting assignments. Some of the outstanding assignments that won praise were handkerchief designs, chalk drawings, still life sketches and individually designed wardrobes.

Future Farmers of America

F. F. A. OFFICERS

President	Joseph Eichenlaub
Vice President	Max Temple
Secretary	Clifford Morgan
Treasurer	Myron Smith

Thriving in their new building across the street, the vocational boys have supported the scrap and tin drives with unfailing loyalty, and under the supervision of Mr. Ryburn and Mr. Bitting have learned the newer methods of farming. There is no doubt in anyone's mind that these boys will prove vital in the all-important war time farm industry.

"Ginters Winners"

Maintaining the old adage, "A woman's place is in the home," the Vocational girls worked diligently all year, despite Mrs. Ginter's absence. Under the direction of Miss Marietta Emanuel, student teacher, and Mrs. Spaid, substitute, the homemakers of H. H. S. completed their clothing and went on to food instruction. When Mrs. Ginter caught up with them in January, she found them still enthusiastic and struggling to digest what they'd cooked. What's cookin', girls?

1. Anita Herr, June 18, 1928.

3. Well, the smile hasn't changed anyway.

5. In 1940, Mr. Creveling went hunting for "greens." He found them, as you can see.

6. Anyone claiming these legs will kindly prove who they belong to. One thing is certain—they aren't Grable's.

7. Bridgework.

9. They're only kidding—I think.

2. Dick Fought when he had chicken pox. (He was cute then.)

4. "Patty" gets a letter from the Navy.

8. The morning after the night before.

10. Ruthie when she was a "little" girl.

Using the slogan "He who reigns, pores," the Seniors pored and pored over their textbooks and faced the end of their school years with confidence and many hopes for future successes.

As the fiftieth graduating class of the Hughesville High School they have proved to be an outstanding example of the citizens graduated from H. H. S. in the half century that it has existed.

As the Senior Class of 1943 they have had parties, cafeteria suppers, picnics, weiner roasts, presented plays, and supported their student organizations.

As a part of the high school they have displayed spirit and loyalty coupled with an interest in school activities.

As a part of the Youth of America they have been proud of their heritage, and proud of the six boys who became men when they left the class to join the Navy of the United States.

As a part of their country they will assist the war effort, work for peace and pray for the coming of freedom for all men.

Business [Mostly Monkey]

The Business course commonly called Commercial included a group of conscientious workers who with the cooperation of Mrs. Smith, substitute teacher, were largely responsible for the success of the school paper and yearbook.

Besides working to maintain high averages in shorthand, typing and salesmanship, these Seniors have been very interested in presenting the students with the every day happenings around them. They have helped double the size of the school paper, and have taught the coming staff their technique.

Class Of Forty-three

—by Thelma Lunger

It's the Senior Class, yes a bright cheery class,
We have spent our full twelve years with you.
Now our work is done, the time has come
To fight for the red, white and blue
In our days spent here, we have met friends so dear
But the parting we feel is night
And where'er we go, you're sure to know,
We'll remember dear Hughesville High.

It's the Senior class, yes a bright cheery class,
One by one we will go on our way
But our minds will sigh, for Hughesville High
Wherever we happen to stray
And where duty calls, we will follow so brave
Though the tears may fill every eye
And where'er we go, you're sure to know
We'll remember dear Hughesville High.

Tune "You're a Grand Old Flag"

Just One More Look Before We Go

—by June E. Smith

Just one more look before we go
For we must ne'er forget,
Echoes of the memories
That we hear ringing yet.

Remember, when we were Freshmen,
The parties we had in the gym,
And the wiener roasts to the Island . . .
Time has made them dim.

We had sixty-five in our class, then,
But one by one they've gone,
Leaving only thirty-six
To carry our colors on.

Just one more look before we go—
Her crannies and her nooks,
The homerooms where we labored—
The desk that held our books.

And when we were Sophomores
We struggled through the year,
Oblivious to the thoughts
That the end was drawing near.

We had penny suppers in the gym,
And a party on Hallowe'en,
And at the end of the year, with pickles and beans,
We went to Rolling Green.

Last year, as Juniors,
The Seniors taught us the ropes,
How to "hook" a class,
And "skip" to "Ben's" for cokes.

Of course, I shouldn't tell this,
But as long as a class play's rehearsing,
They'll always be Juniors and Seniors,
Whose tonsils persist in thirsting.

This year, when six of our boys
Off to the Navy tramped,
We gave them a party
And started buying bonds and stamps.

So just one more look at our colors,
That adorn the gymnasium wall,
Through misty eyes that glisten
Because of the tears that fall.

Just one more look, so we'll recall,
Class night and our tune,
That burns in our hearts so deep
The days that passed too soon.

Take one more look, My Classmates,
And remember what you see,
For you've just one more look together
As the Class Of '43.

A Word Of Appreciation To Our Patrons

In recent years the trend has been toward brevity and conciseness without sacrificing clarity or purpose. It is with this thought in mind that many high school publications, including this year's MONARCH, have abolished their advertising sections for the similar patrons list.

The MONARCH wishes to thank the following citizens for the cooperative support and good will they have shown towards this pioneer idea.
